

Satellite radio listeners have a right to information on weather and traffic just like any other radio listener. Cable television subscribers are not restricted from receiving this information so why should a satellite radio listener be deprived? Repeal this legislation now!